ABSTRACT

About the Keynote

Thailand is one of a rich culture country. Cultural Management System is one of the important topics. There are several attempts to develop platforms for collecting, understanding and utilizing as a use case. Navanurak is one of the cultural management platforms that provides a user-centric and apply distributed approach by considering community to enhance and manage their own resources by themselves. Nowadays AI in culture is one of the interesting topics, applying AI can unlock a lot of opportunities in cultural based application.
